Footnotes:

^{1/} The period covered by any statement begins on the day after the closing date of the last statement filed, or January 1, if no previous statement has been filed.

^{2/} File the pre-election statements if payments of $500 or more are received or made during the corresponding period to produce a slate mailer in connection with an election. If a state election is held in 2007, a filing schedule for that election will be posted on the FPPC website.

^{3/} In addition to paper reports, a state slate mailer organization must file electronically if, beginning January 1, 2000, the organization receives or makes payments totaling $50,000 or more for the purpose of producing slate mailers. For more information, visit the Secretary of State's web site at www.ss.ca.gov.

^{4/} File the semi-annual statements if payments of $500 or more are received or made to produce a slate mailer during the semi-annual period. The semi-annual periods are: January 1 through June 30; July 1 through December 31.

Additional Notes:

- Except for deadlines that fall on a Saturday, Sunday, or an official state holiday, there is no provision in the law for extending a filing deadline. Late statements are subject to a $10 per day late fine.
- All statements are public documents.
